Deu 31:10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of [every] seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles

Deu 31:11 When all Israel is come to appear before the Lord, thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing

Deu 31:12 Gather the people together, men and women, and children, and thy stranger that [is] within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the Lord your God, and observe to do all the words of this law.

Deu 31:13 And [that] their children which have not known [anything] may hear, and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

Each day's reading may be too big of a load to read and digest in one day. But I think God will honor any effort we make. It might be helpful to start a Sabbath year notebook and write thoughts on each of the laws as you read them, with cross references, how to apply them to your life, how to teach children etc and especially in trying to understand the 'spirit of the law', not just read the 'letter of the law'.

Another thing I thought of doing is to start reading the New Testament with a mind toward listing all the 'commandments' of God found there. What a project that would be - giving each of them titles like these. I found 50 commandments of God in just the sermon on the mount. I think this will show God that we have a converted attitude toward all his laws and commandments as David had in Psm 1 and Psm 119. I'm sure God will give us greater understanding of his way and show us more and more wonderful things out of his laws.
